San. Dist. Sues Tinley To Force Sewer Construction

Delay in starting work on a sewer system in Tinley Park has resulted in the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago filing an injunction suit in the Superior court of Cook county asking that the village be restrained from polluting Midlothian creek with sewerage.

Names respondents are the mayor and trustees of Tinley Park and three others, the village clerk and the superintendent and assistant superintendent of public works.

The sanitary district also is asking the court to order the village to construct a sewer system and sewage treatment plant without a bond referendum.

The respondents have 20 days in which to answer and it is expected the court will then set a hearing date on the petition.

This action, it was said, could cause further delay. The Tinley Park council has authorized issuance of revenue bonds totaling $1,350,000 to meet the cost of a sewer system but there is no provision for erection of a sewage treatment plant, nor has the village any plans for such construction. The cost of such a plant would add several hundred thousand dollars to the bill, it was stated.

The demand of the sanitary district that Tinley Park provide its own treatment plant came as a surprise to officials there. Tinley has been proceeding along the line that the disposal of the sewage was a problem to be taken over by the sanitary district.

Solves Mystery Of Case Of Surprising Soprano

If Perry Mason suddenly goes treble in cross-examining a reluctant witness, or Josh Randall the Bounty Hunter, or Palladin, or the redoubtable Matt Dillon become sopranos don't get alarmed—get a filter, for your TV set.

This is the advice of Police Commissioner Frank Guetter of Orland Park who has been getting complaints from residents in the Orland Park area to the effect they have been getting interference on Channel 2 shows.

And when Perry Mason or the stern, determined man hunters who follow him suddenly become sopranos chatting about how things are in Hawaii the TV listeners become annoyed.

Commissioner Guetter has solved it. The feminine voice that cuts in on the Channel 2 programs is Mrs. Esther Talbot, of 15144 Hiawatha Trail, Orland Park Hills, he says. Mrs. Talbot is a ham operator, as amateur broadcasters are called, and she talks with Hawaii frequently because that is where the Talbotts lived before coming to Orland Park. Both Mrs. Talbot and her husband, Wilbur, are licensed amateur radio operators with call letters K 9 UHC and K 9 UHD respectively. Mr. Talbot is an electronics engineer.

Guetter said the Talbotts were operating on their legally assigned frequencies and the interference that some TV set owners get is because their sets are without the proper filters.

The commissioner explained that because filters cost about $4 the set manufacturers do not install them at the factories because they are only necessary when a set is operated in close proximity to a ham.

He invites persons having troubles as outlined to call the Orland police who have the names of the service departments who send out the filters at no cost to the set owners, upon written or phoned requests.

L-W Instructor Gets Grant For Advanced Work

Ralph Christison, head of the Mathematics department at Lincoln-Way high school, received a National Science Foundation grant for the second straight year.

This is the second summer at Purdue for Mr. Christison, who is working on an advanced degree in math. Presently, Christison holds a masters degree in mathematics. He attended Illinois college at Jacksonville and later earned his masters degree at M.I.T. and University of Illinois.

Blame Overheated Flue For Mokena Store Fire

David Noble, proprietor of a general store bearing his name in Mokena, averted what could have been a disastrous fire in the store last Thursday noon.

Fire believed to have been caused by an overheated flue was confined to an area between a false ceiling and rafters which was quickly extinguished by the Mokena fire department. Firemen also used tarpulins in the store to cover the merchandise to avert with water damage.

Mr. Noble said he noticed a small light shining thru the ceiling and thought he had forgotten to turn off a light bulb. After waiting on a few customers he looked at the "light" again and discovered it was growing larger. It was then he realized it was not a light bulb but a fire and quickly notified the department.

Needless to say what might have happened if he had not been in the store at the time, as it is a n old building and fire would have spread rapidly and endangered adjoining property.

Engineer At Orland Sets Up Own Firm

The firm of Lovejoy-Nelis and Associates, consulting engineers, has opened an office at 9959 W. 143rd street, Orland Park. Specializing in municipal engineering and residential developments, the new firm will serve the south and southwest area of the metropolitan region.

The two principals in the firm are Mark Lovejoy and William M. Nelis.

Lovejoy, who is the village engineer for Orland Park and the designer of its proposed sewer system, has been active in Cook, Will and Du Page counties for the past four years as a municipal improvement and residential project engineer. He also has had four years experience as a city manager and more than 20 years association with municipal, state and federal engineering projects.

Nelis has been connected with residential development in the southwest for U.S. Steel Homes in the Chicago and Michigan districts for eight years. Nelis also has sales experience with U.S. Gypsum & Co. and was general manager for a building supply company at Lansing, Mich.

Those attending from Mokena were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Omeland, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Manhart, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bueschel and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Munch and Robert.

Robert is sponsored by Post 40 and by the Mokena Lions club.

Sheriff's deputies are checking clues which they hope will bring them to the burglars who cut open a vault in the Lincoln-Way high school office last week-end and carried off $150 in cash.

Besides the loss of the money the school has a damage bill of approximately $600 as a result of the break-in.

The vault door is valued at about $350 and three files that were wrecked came to another $200 and damage to windows and partitions will run about $50, it was said.

The burglary is believed to have taken place late Saturday night or early Sunday morning. It was discovered Sunday when one of the custodians entered to make a routine check of the building temperature.

The sheriff's office was notified and Deputies John Shelley and Robert Munson are in charge of the investigation.

Investigators believe the burglars were persons familiar with the set-up. There is a new addition to the plant under construction. The burglars threaded their way thru material and debris to make an entrance from the rear.

Once in, which was a simple matter, they smashed a glass in one of the shop doors, unlocked it and entered to pick up a torch and the necessary fuel tanks. Armed with these and a large piece of canvas found in the shop they went to the office Supt. A. Hunter Chapman where the vault is located, smashing other windows in their progress.

Apparently the piece of canvas was used to prevent any passers by from seeing sparks when the torch was put to work on the vault door. This vault is used primarily for storage of permanent records but a drawer there is used to contain petty cash. Besides the petty cash there was money there last week end representing rentals for use of the school so there was about $150 on hand.

A hole, about 16 by 20 inches was cut in the vault door. It is believed the thieves were amateurs for two reasons, one that they expected to find any real quantity of money in a school and the other that they took 10 or 12 silver dollars, several rolls of uncirculated pennies belonging to Supt. Chapman's coin collection and also attempted to chisel 92 cents in coins of various denominations from a paper weight on the superintendent's desk.

This is the second time Lincoln-Way has been burglarized in like manner. There was a break-in there in 1958 in which the burglars cut into the safe and carried off a small amount of money. A man was arrested in connection with that case and later sent to the penitentiary. He is said to be up for parole but has not been released as yet.

Why the colleen playin' that now is Marilyn Sorensen. The other principal is William Dixon as Finnegan.

Frankfort Asks Vote On Fire Dist.

County Judge John Cowing has set April 19 as the date of hearing on a petition to organize a fire protection district covering Frankfort, Lincoln Estates and a large section of the surrounding area, if the court finds the petition sufficient it will set a date for the election.

According to Attorney John Verklan, of the law firm of Krusemark & Bertagni, the area covers approximately six by 10 miles. It includes all of Green Garden township except for a strip along the Monee township line, five miles long and two miles wide.

This will be the second time an effort has been made to form a fire protection district for the Frankfort area. In the previous attempt the proposition was voted down.

The Frankfort fire department is a volunteer organization and is supported by contributions from the village of New Lenox and subscriptions from residents outside the village limits.

A fire protection district is supported thru a tax levy. Formation of such a district, it was pointed out, would relieve the village of payments and members of the department from the task of collection subscriptions from residents outside the village of Frankfort and at the same time insure the public of fire protection.

The petition asking formation of the fire protection district carries 105 signatures.

Lincoln-Way Board Hires New Teacher

A. Hunter Chapman, principal of Lincoln-Way community high school, announced the appointment of Miss Alice S. Herman to the faculty.

She has been teaching bookkeeping, office practice, typing and shorthand at Chatsworth, (Ill.) since her graduation in 1958.

CLEAR WAY FOR STREET—The house formerly owned by Mrs. Anna Mitchell at the east end of Kansas st., Frankfort, has been removed and the way thus cleared for the village to carry Kansas street on to White ave. per its agreement with Arthur Bauch. Bauch sold the site wanted by Superior Match for its Frankfort plant on the condition that the village board open Kansas street. At the meeting of the village board last week J. & M. Excavating

Co., Frankfort, was hired to remove the house. They could not burn it down as a unit—it would have been illegal, it was said—but the torch could be applied to sections. A cable was noosed about the house and the structure pulled in two. The top half, shown burning here, was the largest section. The bottom half was burned separately. Frankfort firemen stood by. DEATH OF FRANK LOUCKS
Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Goodale funeral home, for Frank R. Loucks, age 66, who died at St. Joseph's Hospital Saturday, March 19, after a two weeks' hospitalization. He had been in poor health for some

Mr. Loucks was a Will county resident all of his life, and for many years had lived on the farm on Bruce Rd., which was his home at the time of his death. See $60,000 Of ACP Work In Prospect Soil conservation service technicians reported this week that ACP requests came from twice as many Will county farms this year as last year at the same time. Sixty Will county farmers signed up for 110 of the permanent practices so far this year. Included are 27 grass waterways, 14 drainage ditches, 12 concrete structures, 2 diversions, 1 terrace, 1 contour layout, 38 tile outlets and 15 tile lines in connection with other practices.

Cost of ACP work this year may reach $60,000, according to present estimates. Payments to farmers on a cost-sharing basis generally amount to about 50% of the cost of establishing conservation practices.

Half of the $60,000 estimate is the farmers' share of the expense and half comes from ACP allocation to Will county. The money is spent mainly on cement, steel, metal pipe, tile and rental of earth moving equipment needed in the establishment of conservation practices.

Soil conservation service is responsible for doing the technical work on permanent conservation practices in the agricultural conservation program. This includes survey, design and assistance in laying out the practices.

Agricultural stabilization and conservation committee through ACP offers landowners or operators 11 different permanent type conservation practices on which cost sharing payments are available.

When a farmer signs up for one of these practices, the SCS technician makes an investigation and reports results to the ASC county committee.

The technician must determine whether the practice is needed and will work under conditions present on the farm. The ASC committee then determines whether it will meet requirements of the ACP.

Hoover, Clarke To Appear In Wabash Case

Representative Harold Hoover has announced that he and Representative Terrell Clarke will appear before the Illinois commerce commission in connection with the petition of the Wabash Railroad to discontinue its overnight passenger train service between St. Louis and Chicago. He stated that he will use the opportunity to again press for better suburban transportation service between Chicago and Oak Park, which includes the Oak Lawn, Chicago Ridge, Worth and Palos areas.

In 1958, Hoover successfully opposed the Wabash's efforts to discontinue its 46-ride commutation ticket. Subsequently, when the Wabash discontinued its local commuter train between Decatur and Chicago on Saturdays, he arranged with the Wabash to have its fast trains make the Saturday stops at Oak Lawn.

Letters To The Editor

Sir:
There are approximately 765 families in Orland Park elementary school district No. 135. Assuming there are two voters to each family we should have a total vote of 1,530 in a school board election, April 11, 1959 only 98 people took the time and trouble to cast a vote in our local election. There were two candidates on the ballot for two vacancies on the board. No contest! No interest! The quality of our schools depends on the quality of our boards. The members of our board of education decide how good our schools can be; what kind of education our children will have which in turn decides what their community opportunities will be; and, even influence the kind of citizens they become. The members of the board of education of District 135 decided in the 1959-1960 school year exactly how $135,000 of our tax dollars would be spent. Seven people make all those decisions for all of us. I, as a voter, am much interested in the identity of these seven people. I, as a tax payer and parent, am much concerned with the lack of interest in these elections.

Renew War On Mosquitoes

The year's first airplane work against mosquitoes by the South Cook County mosquito abatement district is nearing completion. The yellow colored low-flying plane has applied a granular insecticide to large snow-covered sources where mosquito eggs will hatch into larvae as snow melts. Ground equipment has also been covering the many hundreds of smaller areas.

This is the first year that this operation has been performed by a plane in this area. Records for several years have demonstrated the effectiveness of this method of control by ground equipment as a way of preventing the early spring hatch of mosquitoes that occurs as melting snow collects over wide areas of the district.

Before a source is treated by the pre-hatch method, it must have a history as a mosquito source. Also, soil samples are taken from suspected sources. The major pest mosquitoes of this vicinity lay their drought-resistant eggs in mud among dry leaves of sites that later flood. Soil samples are run thru a machine that separates the dormant eggs from the soil. Microscopic examination then reveals the presence of any eggs.

It's Census Time

Beginning in April numerators employed by the federal census bureau, of the Department of Commerce, will take the 18th decennial census of the United States.

The new statistics will supercede those collected in the 1950 census as well as those compiled in special censuses taken under the direction of the bureau by various communities.

These special listings of population growth were taken by quite a number of Illinois cities and villages in order to get a higher return from the state gasoline tax. The state gives some of the gasoline tax back to incorporated communities and the amount is determined by population at roughly $5 a head.

Population changes may also effect the rights of municipalities as there are numerous laws on the books that apply to a city or village in specified population brackets. The census bureau also gathers statistics covering a wide range of subjects that commercial and business firms use in setting up their programs.

Ten years ago Illinois had a population of 8,712,176 and ranked fourth among the states in that category. When the first census was taken in 1800 the population of Illinois was 2,458. At that time Illinois was part of a territory. It became a state in 1819 and when the 1820 census was made the population stood at 55,211 or less than one person to the square mile, the land area of Illinois being 55,935 square miles. In 1950 there were 155.8 inhabitants per square mile.

Illinois had its greatest numerical increase and its most rapid growth in the decade of 1920-1930. The 1930 census showed a gain of 1,145,374 over the 1920 total.

The greatest percentage increase was displayed in the 1960 census when the count stood at 1,711,951 or 101.1 percent greater than the figure for 1950.

The 1960 figure is expected to show a considerable gain in the number of inhabitants. But it will be some time before the totals will be available.

It is expected they will also show a great population movement into the south suburban area but the coming decade is supposed to be the period when the growth here will really explode.

This growth will present many problems and the communities with plan commissions that are really functioning will be best able to meet the exigencies of the times.

There are some horrible examples, not too far away, of what occurs when new areas are opened up without planning.

firms main emphasis.

Inquiry among steel makers, indicates that the large firms expect that about June, the rate of production will be down to something a little over 60 per cent of capacity, but that it will pick up again and end the year about 75 to 80 per cent of capacity.

The business statistics indicate we are not in a boom period, but certainly general business is good and no present indications of a substantial turn down.

The individual without corporate experience, often does not realize that officers and directors of corporations are also individuals who have become specialists in management. The pressure on them to have their firms show a profit, is heavy.

Competition between firms within an industry is becoming keen. Like individuals in tight competition, there is more than a little soul-searching in progress in industrial management. As with individuals, lack of real competition brings on careless management and incompetents sometimes reach high places.

Management personnel are attending more and more seminars and special lecture courses. The competition from foreign manufacturers is forcing more than superficial study.

Several recent studies of European costs of manufacture show labor cost is not by any means, the whole story. The number of salaried employees is an important cost.

Cameron Hawley, a student of management and author of several books on the subject, calls this the era of the "nice guy" with top executives trying to keep everyone happy. He found some European firms with more than 50 percent less salaried employees. He also found many American firms with a fetish for "committee decisions" on management problems. He and many other students of management feel the committee system is merely a device to diffuse responsibility for management decisions. It enables the incompetent to remain at the top since he, personally, has not made any bad decisions. Much like the government agencies.

Smaller firms often can easily compete with the large firms as the management is forceful and prompt in business decisions.

Business & Finance

BY MAURICE P. ANGLAND
With no present distortion of business statistics by a current surge of inflation, the nation is expected to end 1960 with a Gross National Product of $500 billion. The "GNP," as it is usually termed in financial reports, is the combined spending of national and local governments, business firms and individuals. This is a new high for the nation and about four per cent over the 1959 figure. Some forecasters are predicting as high as $520 billion for 1960. Fortune Magazine which has been rather accurate in the past, predicts the GNP for the year will be $512 billion. The large financial and industrial organizations watch this GNP figure closely.

Business spending for new plant and equipment is increasing its pace. This spending is being forced to meet new demand as well as to cope with competitive conditions that have arisen thru scientific developments in products and processes. Development of automation is very important and firms in this field are doing very well. There are a number of firms which have specialized in industrial controls devices for years. Electronics is very important in this field, but the word electronics includes so many activities, that it is sometimes confusing to the public. The usual investment reference volumes quickly reveal the particular

Spring -- to borrow the song writers -- is a many splendored thing.

Just exactly what a "splendored thing" is other than another corruption of a noun is difficult to define. Probably most persons who have heard the song in which love is described as a "splendored thing," would say it meant grand; some might think of it as many-faceted or if beholders ever listened to such square jive it could be the most.

So to say that spring is a many splendored thing could mean most anything -- which is quite fitting in dealing with this season.

Spring, while scoring high with the poets, creators of fashions, chicken growers, seed, the seed, shrubtree business, makers of fishing, golf, and baseball equipment, paint and varnish manufacturers, truck gardeners, farmers and marble vendors, is a treacherous season.

One can freeze one day, and the next and the next, then maybe roast, then freeze, freeze, freeze. A resident of these latitudes can expect to battle cold, snow, slush and ice thru the winter months but when spring arrives, well lets face it, it is just more of the same.

There's just one thing to remember. One must take spring as you find it. If the wether is bad -- grumble. It won't change conditions but it may make you feel better. If the wether is good -- enjoy it.

Spring is the time for small fry to polish up on their marble shooting, kite flying, and top spinning..... It is also good time for them to make plans for the summer which as everyone knows is the best time to embark on a career as a pirate, go west to fight Indians or outlaws, or set off on an expedition to African or South American jungles.

Spring is the time when men look to see if their escape routes are open when hints or demands for garden spading and yard raking are heard in the land.

Spring is also a time when crab grass stretches forth to take another bite of lawn and the dandelion throws off its winter blanket and prepares to take over the landscape. Dandelion leaves, incidentally, make good salad or serve for a mess of greens. Further south poke will serve for such purposes.

Spring is also the time when streets and roads, pitted -- sometimes deep -- and broken by winter's frosts and thaws, are at their worst and repairs are put off until the weather, as well as the ground, settles.

Spring is also a time for house-

MR. AND MRS. ALBERT HOGER (MARVIN SMITH PHOTO)

Albert Hogers To Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary At Open House This Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hoger, who have a Frankfort mailing address, have lived on their farm on Lincoln highway, just east of Harlem ave., since their marriage 50 years ago April 3, 1910, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, April 3. The open house will be held in the parish hall of the St. Paul Lutheran church, located in the area called Seden Prairie, starting at 4 o'clock. All friends and relatives are invited.

The family will all attend services at St. Paul church that Sunday, following which the Ladies Aid society will serve dinner in the church dining room to the family.

Mr. Hoger was born Jan. 21, 1885, on a farm in Rich township, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hoger. Mrs. Hoger, the former Marie Kampke, was born on the farm owned by her parents the late Mr. and Mrs. William Kampe, and where she has lived all her life, and which she and her husband purchased. After they retired from farming last year they sold the farm, reserving an acre on which they expect to build a new home for themselves this spring. Their son Norman, also has an acre of the farm where he and his wife have built a home.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hoger are in good health, except he is handicapped some with arthritis. They enjoy keeping house now, without the farm work, except now they do have a flock of chickens. Both enjoy television, radio, and reading, having been a subscriber of the News-Bulletin for many years. Mr. Hoger has a keen interest in the affairs of the country and locality. They also enjoy visiting relatives and their children. Both are members of the St. Paul Lutheran church and the Cook County Farm Bureau.

Their children who are planning the celebration are three sons, Norman, and Lavern, the latter who lives with his parents and Hilbert and wife, Minneapolis, Minn., where he is employed in the laboratory in the agronomy department of the University of Minnesota; two daughters, Luella, Mrs. Harry Yunker, Mokena, and Evelyn wife of the Rev. William Baring, pastor of the Apostol Lutheran church, Melrose Park. There are 11 grandchildren.

MOKENA CUB PACK

Thursday evening, March 24, Pack 40, Mokena Cub Scouts held their monthly pack meeting at the Carpenter Street School. In attendance were approximately 200 boys and adults. Den One, headed by Mrs. Harold Beebe, presented a short historical skit on the state of Illinois while Den Nine, headed by Mrs. Wilbur Buske, presented colors. The refreshments were capably handled by Mrs. Alfred Carlson, Mrs. Robert Fredin and Mrs. Kenneth Warning.

The highlight of the evening was the presentation of wards earned by the cub scouts by James Tilsy, cubmaster and Al Sorenson, treasurer of the group. The bobcat badge (the first badge to be earned after the boys have become Cub Scouts which consist of learning the law of the pack and some general rules) was awarded to Tom Booble, Timmy Hbmerding, Larry Hauser, David Bills, Charles Bills, Mark Looschen and John Roman.

The Wolf Badge (earned after completing 12 achievements geared for the boys in the 8-9 years age group) was awarded to George Corniels, Arthur Canty, Douglas Friant, Philip Thomas, William Zugenbuehler and Mike Schewski. Gold arrows for the wolf badge (gold and silver arrows are awarded to boys who complete a number of electives in their books which also extend to the bear and lion awards) was presented to Frank Sizer, Arthur Canty, Philip Thomas, William Zugenbuehler, Mike Schewski, James Chisholm, Jimmy Lang and Mike Novak. Silver arrows were earned by Frank Sizer, Donald Carroll, Arthur Canty, Philip Thomas, William Zugenbuehler, Mike Schewski, James Lan, Martin Novak, Steven Thompson and Tom Guth.

The Bear Badge (earned after completing 12 achievements geared for the boys in the 9-10 years age group) was awarded to Mike Folisi and gold arrows for the bear badge presented to Ken Roger, Randy Dixon and Larry Sorenson. The silver arrow was awarded to Sorenson and Rogers.

The Lions gold and silver arrows were presented to Ken Corniels.

If a boy finished all of his requirements before he attains the age of 11 he is assigned to the Webelos program which is one of preparing the boy for the Boy Scouts; this program is now under the direction of William Miller.

The core of the Cub Scout program is centered around the boy and his desire to accomplish and complete his requirements; in addition the program provides for a very close working relationship between the boy and his parents.

During April there will be a renewal of the local cub scout charter and the signing up of new boys for membership. In order to handle the new boys it will become necessary to obtain new den mothers and committee members. If anyone is interested in the Cub Scout program please contact Tom Booble (5918) or James Tilsy (5682). The next monthly pack meeting will be held on the fourth Thursday in April.

Last Saturday at 9 a.m. a caravan of 14 cars consisting of 65 boys and 20 adults gathered at the Carpenter Street school and departed for Chicago for their trip to the Museum of Science and Industry. Despite the cold weather the turnout was excellent. At the Museum the boys tried to see all; but the size of the Museum is too great to accomplish that in one day. They did manage to cover the museum's outstanding exhibits which included a trip through the German Submarine, the U505 which was captured by the US Navy during World War II in the Atlantic Ocean and a trip through a replica of a coal mine. The entire trip lasted about eight hours and the boys as well as the adults thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The committee wants to thank all the adults who drove and supervised for without them a trip of this nature could not be undertaken. The drivers for the trip were Mrs. Wilbur Buske and Mrs. Wasitus and Messrs: Collins, Sizer, Stewart, Chisholm, Thomas, Neuls, Thompson, Homering, Friant, Stanis, Tilsy and Miller. The adults who helped supervise were Mrs. Mark LeRoy, Mrs. William Miller and Mrs. Charles Neuls, and Messrs Sorenson, Stanis and Lang.

The next cub scout activity will be held in April and it will be an airplane ride over the local area.

Charge Man With Driving While Drunk

A Mokena man, Joseph C. White 21, of 195th street, is at liberty under bonds on a charge of driving while intoxicated and is scheduled to appear in Joliet police court April 1.

Since a police magistrate or justice of the peace lacks jurisdiction to impose a penalty in a drunken driver case, such cases in Will county are referred to the state's attorney's office for action in the county court. White's case was referred to the prosecutor's office.

White was arrested by Joliet police early Monday morning. The officers began the chase because of what they described as White's fast and reckless driving.

He almost turned his car over several times in his weaving tactics, the officers said, and just missed smashing into another car that like him was east bound on Cass street. Police caught up with him when he swerved across the street and careened into a gasoline station on the north side of the thoroughfare, the report states. Police said he left 20 feet of skid marks before bringing the car to a stop, almost overturning again.

The arresting officers had intended to charge him with speeding until they caught up with him. Then they hauled him to the station on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Conduct Fun Match At Kennel Club

A highly successful fun match was conducted by the South Gate Kennel club at its training quarters in Chicago Heights recently.
Purebred dogs from the south suburban area competed in novice obedience work for trophies and ribbons.

They were judged by Bap Buratto training director of the club.

The obedience winners were:
1st Betty Grottinger and her standard poodle from Evergreen Park, with a score of 196 out of 200;
2nd Joyce Duke's Weimaraner from Oak Forest, 195.

A dog show (conformation) was also held, the dogs being judged in groups by Don Nist, Monee; and Harvey Arnold, Frankfort.

Another run match is planned for May. Dog obedience and dog show handling classes are conducted every Tuesday evening at the club's training quarters.

4-H NEWS

Twelve of the volunteer 4-H leaders met last week to discuss some important matters relating to our 4-H Club program for the coming year. Those attending the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Siemsen, Jean Siemsen, Katherine Ihlenfeld, Helen Stellwagen, Tinley Park; Herb Kohl, Mel Hoyer, Matteson; Mrs. Marvin Cooper, Orland Park; Mrs. Phillip Uthe, Joan Uthe, Mrs. E. W. Mueller, Midlothian; and Henry Veldhuizen, Glenwood. Since this is a scientific age, you might say we discussed how to put the 4-H program in orbit.

Two items in connection with the 4-H Fair, to be held in August, were added in the Handicraft Division, — metal enameling and artificial flowers. Textile painting will be deleted. In the Home Grounds Improvement Division, in the class "Annual Flowers" more latitude as to the number of blooms or spikes exhibited will be offered. There will be a range of three to six, for example, where the premium list now reads "only six".

Other items discussed included helping club reporters do a better job, Share the Fun, the Soil Project, and the Grain Marketing activity.

The 4-H Fair Board met last week to consider plans for the upcoming fair. A committee, composed of Herbert Kohl, Melvin Hoyer, Matteson; Henry Veldhuizen, Glenwood; and Melvin Keup, Tinley Park, reviewed the By-laws of the Fair Association and amended By-Laws will be voted upon at the next meeting.

A committee was also appointed to make arrangements for the same fair sight as we used last year, i.e., Rolling Acres Farm.

Here are weather conditions that can make corn borers a serious threat; (1) cool weather until corn planting time, (2) a mild summer, (3) average or above — average rainfall and (4) calm weather during the corn borer moth flight in June.

Cook County Farm Bureau Forum was held in LaGrange this past week. Attending from this area were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cletcher, Alvin Handorf, Lemont; George DeVries, Evergreen Park; Frank Sanders, Palos Park; and C. W. Engelhardt, Tinley Park. The program of the County Farm Bureau was reviewed as well as statewide programs, concerning state and national legislation.

Upkeep

Wood sided homes must be properly maintained for long wear. An occasional coat of paint is vitally important, just as occasional maintenance of furniture with new finishes insures long wear. Claims made by certain metal makers that metal house siding will not need repainting is being rejected by paint manufacturers.

Asks Public To Fill Out
Census Forms In Advance

Advance report forms for the 1960 census of population and housing will be distributed by post office employees this week to all households in this area, District Supervisor Mrs. Hazel B. Christiansen has announced.

The advance report form is a new census-taking device which is designed to speed up the field canvass and provide more accurate statistics. Distribution of this form before the start of the house to house canvass gives the family a chance to assemble information about each member in advance of the census taker's visit. The district supervisor urges all residents to fill out the form and have it ready for the census takers when they start their rounds April 1.

The advance report form contains seven questions about every person in the household and six questions about the household's dwelling. The household information asked for is name, address, sex, color or race, month and year of birth, whether married or single, and relationship to head of the household. The information required about the dwelling is the number of rooms, cooking facilities, plumbing, and whether rented or owned. At every fourth household, the census taker will leave a census household questionnaire which contains additional questions covering population and housing characteristics which are being asked of a 25 percent sample of the Nation's population. Householders are requested to fill out the household questionnaire and mail it within three days to the local census district office. A pre-addressed, postage free envelope is being provided for this purpose.

The "sample" population questions include inquiries on country of birth, mother tongues of foreign born, schooling, employment, income and related items. The additional housing questions relate to rent or value of dwelling, heating equipment, water supply, and other facilities and equipment.

The district supervisor pointed out that information about individuals and their homes furnished to the Census Bureau is kept confidential under federal law. Only statistical totals and averages are published. No individual person can be identified in published reports and census information cannot be used for regulation, investigation, or taxation.

HERE'S OUR CASE...

YOU

BE THE JUDGE

FRANK H. MASTERS, JR.
YOUR STATE'S ATTORNEY

When I was elected your Republican State's Attorney, I felt I had certain obligations to the citizens of Will County.

The two basic obligations were:

1. To prosecute to the limit of the law all persons guilty of crimes perpetrated within our county.
2. To defend with equal vigor and interest the rights and privileges of all citizens of Will County.

To this end we have labored and succeeded.

This fine record has been achieved with the help of the outstanding staff of capable assistants which I had the privilege of acquiring . . . John J. McGarry, Joseph Kirincich, Michael Orenic and Robert J. Higgins.

By working closely with our various police agencies, Will County has remained a clean, safe county—a better place to live, work and play.

We would like to continue this fine record for another four years.
